

Bryan Howell and The Standalones

Genre(s): Rock / Alternative / Americana

Location: Nashville, TN

“...Seamlessly melds big guitars, intimate lyrics and triumphant choruses together....a must-see live act.” –The Fuze Magazine

“Lyrically, Bryan does a fantastic job of painting a picture and placing you inside the mind of his characters. Musically, he brings life to an array of emotions and makes them become a part of you.... I think he's on to something, and he could really open up some new doors....” –Anchor Music News

“Some music just makes you happy when you hear it....stellar tunes that draw from a variety of rich influences: rock and roll, rockabilly, garage rock, power-pop, country....” –Eclectic Music Lover

“Not content to simply toe Nashville's pop-country line, Howell makes music with a refreshing roots-rock bent that recalls Bruce Springsteen or The Georgia Satellites' Dan Baird.” –Kansas City Star

“...A refreshingly unique artist, he reminds me a little of a young Van Morrison or Mick Jagger.... gritty vocals, red-hot guitar, and a bedrock foundation of hooks and melody.” –Faster and Louder

VIDEO

“Bryan Howell in 60 seconds”

“Nothing To Give You
(But Everything)”
(Live Performance)

“Time Marches On”
(Live Performance)

“Your Saturday Night”
(Music Video)

ABOUT BRYAN HOWELL

Mixing both classic and modern influences with an energetic and impassioned approach, Bryan Howell's music has drawn comparisons to a variety of classic and contemporary artists, while garnering strong reviews and airplay on SiriusXM, internet and college radio. Onstage, he and his backing band The Standalones tear into a diverse set ranging from full-on rock numbers to soul and country-inflected ballads with an equal amount of showmanship and focus, earning high praise as a dynamic live act. Currently hard at work in the recording studio, Howell is now working to complete an album of ambitious new material while also taking to the stage again.

www.bryanhowellmusic.com

